

Interim payment under the JCT 2016 Design and Build Contract

The Contractor shall make an Interim Payment Application stating the sum the Contractor considers will become due at the due date and the basis on which the sum has been calculated. Accompanied by such further information as specified in the Employer's Requirements.

